

Alcohol Consumption by Country (2010)

Global Alcohol Consumption Map (2010)

Sum of Alcohol

000 018

Key Insights:

- Eastern European countries show the highest alcohol consumption levels.
- Significant disparity exists between developed and developing regions.
- Certain African and Middle Eastern countries show very low consumption.
- Clear geographic clustering suggests cultural and regional influence.
- Data can support public health policy planning in high-consumption regions.

Country Comparison Heatmap

Location

